

'Round the Mountain announces the next Heartwood jury session.

"Take your place among Southwest Virginia master artisans!"

'Round the Mountain will be holding the eighth Jury Session for Heartwood in early winter. RTM members will receive email notification once date is confirmed.

Important information:

- All members of RTM are eligible to submit their work to be considered for sale at Heartwood, however, the focus of the galleries are to showcase regional craft.
- The first 50 members to submit their completed application will be juried in this session. No faxed, emailed or electronic applications will be accepted. No applications will be accepted prior to the announcement of confirmed date.
- Do not submit work with application. The first 50 eligible applicants will deliver their work to the RTM office in Abingdon on September 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th or 11th. Details will be provided upon jury confirmation.
- All work submitted to the jury process must be available for sale.
- If accepted by the jury, pieces may be purchased that day.
- Applications received after the 50 member limit has been reached will be returned to applicant.

Jury criteria and applications are available at www.roundthemountain.org.

Please complete and submit your Jury Application only after date has been announced.
